

LATIMER QUESTS ALTS; RUSH FOR SIX SUBPOENAS. POLICE ARE PREPARED TO MAKE AN ARREST AT ONCE.

ALDERMEN KILL P. R.R. TUNNEL PLAN

By a Vote of 56 to 10, They Adopt Railroad Committee's Adverse Report.

By a vote of 56 to 10 the Board of Aldermen this afternoon refused to grant a franchise for the cross-town tunnel of the Pennsylvania and Long Island Railroad.

The Railroad Committee had reported adversely on the proposition, and its report was upheld after a long discussion, the Board refusing even to postpone the matter for one week.

At a meeting of the Board of Aldermen this afternoon previous to the regular meeting of the Board, it was decided to report adversely on the Pennsylvania Tunnel route. The vote, according to Alderman Goodman, was 5 to 3 against the tunnel.

The meeting lasted more than an hour. It was announced that Alderman Goodman, Peck and Owens had voted for the route and Alderman Diemer, Chairman, Lundy, Downing, Kirtz, Wafer and McCall had voted against it.

When the Board of Aldermen met there was a long argument on the proposal to widen Fourth avenue between Eighth and Ninth streets, and to establish a Rapid Transit station there.

GREATSINGER RIDICULES THE BELMONT TUNNEL BID.

Wonders that Syndicate Did Not Offer to Build for $1.

President Greatsinger this afternoon discussed for The Evening World in scathing terms the bid of the Belmont syndicate for the Brooklyn tunnel. He said:

"I am surprised that the Belmont syndicate did not offer to build the tunnel for $1. It would make no difference to the city, and would be cheaper for Mr. Belmont, because he might then borrow the money outside at a reduced rate of interest.

"This tunnel was to be essentially for the benefit of the people of Brooklyn, and our plans carry out this idea. Mr. Belmont offers nothing to Brooklyn beyond transportation through the tunnel, while we offer five direct routes leading from the Brooklyn terminal. This is equivalent to five separate tunnels so far as Brooklyn people are concerned.

Expect Co-Operation. "In my mind, it will be one of the

CHARLES FROHMAN BACK. TO EXPORT $1,000,000 GOLD

Ladenburg, Thalmann & Co. Make Withdrawal for Shipment. Ladenburg, Thalmann & Co. engaged $1,000,000 in gold at the Assay Office to-day for shipment to Europe.

Weather Forecast. Forecast for the thirty-six hours ending at 8 P. M. Wednesday for New York City and vicinity: Partly cloudy to-night and Wednesday; light to fresh west winds.

FAVORITES ARE BEATEN. NEW YORK WINS

NEW YORK 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 2-3 ORANGE 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1-2

Fifth Inning—Matty singled. Jones fanned. McGraw singled. McGraw forced McGraw. Brodie flied out. No runs.

Seventh Inning—Bresnahan fanned. Cronin safe on Batlman's error. Jones singled. McGraw forced Jones at second. McGraw flied out. No runs.

Brooklyn Wins. PHILADELPHIA 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0 BROOKLYN 1 0 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-3

Fourth Race—Bragg 1. Brulere 2. Vulcan 3.

STRONG CHARGES WITHDRAWN.

Lawyer Friend, accompanied by Job Hedges, who was private secretary to Mayor Strong, called at Police Headquarters at 5:30 o'clock this afternoon.

SLEEPING MAN FELL INTO RIVER AND WAS DROWNED.

Patrick Monahan, thirty-five years old, of No. 146 Tenth avenue, while asleep at the foot of Bloomfield street, North River, to-day fell into the slip and was drowned.

HAD BEEN ARRESTED BEFORE, SO HELD HIS FINE.

A man, who described himself as "Harold S. Rankine," thirty-seven years old, of No. 26 West Forty-fourth street, was before Magistrate Deuel in the Tombs Court this afternoon charged with intoxication by Patrolman Cahill, of the Elizabeth street station.

DRESSMAKER'S PLUCKY FIGHT WITH BURGLAR.

Miss Mary Dougherty, a pretty young dressmaker, of No. 341 Lexington avenue, found a burglar in the dining-room of her home this afternoon. She rushed at the young man and grabbed him by the throat.

STEAMER WINDWARD NEARLY SWAMPED.

SYDNEY, N. S., July 22.—Just as the Windward was about to sail water was noticed rushing into her hold. Upon examination the accuser was found to be leaking badly, and by 3 o'clock there were nearly three feet of water in the hold and it was apparently gaining on the pumps.

SLEEPER IN PARK SAID HE WAS HYPNOTIZED.

Charles Wagner, twenty-three years old, was found by Patrolman Conroy to-day asleep on a Central Park bench near Eighty-first street and Eighth avenue.

GIANTS PLAY ORANGE NINE

Jersey men Score on New Yorkers in First Inning—Deegan Is a Puzzle Until Third, When Giants Score.

New York. Orange A. C. Cusick, m. McGraw, c. Broderick, p. Dietrich, i. Brodie, o. Lauder, 2b. Smith, 2b. Brown, rf. Rowersman, c. Mathewson, p. Umpire—Mr. Deegan.

Seventh Inning—Bresnahan fanned. Cronin safe on Batlman's error. Jones singled. McGraw forced Jones at second. McGraw flied out. No runs.

Brooklyn Wins. PHILADELPHIA 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0 BROOKLYN 1 0 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-3

Fourth Race—Bragg 1. Brulere 2. Vulcan 3.

WIDOW SWEARS MIDNIGHT INTRUDER'S FACE WAS ENTIRELY MASKED—NEIGHBORS TELL OF HEARING CRIES OF "WALTER!"—TUTHILL EXPLAINS ABOUT HIS VISIT.

The Latimer inquest to-day was abruptly adjourned. Six subpoenas were hastily issued. Statements are made that the police are prepared to make an arrest at once.

The six new witnesses to appear to-morrow will give testimony of the utmost importance.

Distriet-Attorney Clarke believes three of them will be able to solve the murder mystery, the motives for which, he asserts, are far reaching.

Mrs. Latimer for the first time described her husband's murderer. She said he was of medium height, and that he wore a bicycle cap and black cutaway coat.

A mask covered his entire face. He did not speak. She touched his revolver, which he carried in his left hand. He shoved her roughly aside. Next day there were marks on her limbs.

William H. Tuthill, about whom Latimer, on his death bed, asked: "Is Tuthill watched?" told of his visits to the Latimer home. He said the family made no objection.

MRS. LATIMER FOR FIRST TIME TRIES TO DESCRIBE INTRUDER.

Mrs. Latimer, for the first time, to-day gave a description of her husband's murderer.

It was noon when she was called to the stand by Coroner Williams at the inquest in Borough Hall, Brooklyn. She appeared broken and ill.

During her testimony she wept and seemed on the verge of hysterics. Q. Mrs. Latimer, you were visited by the police for the purpose of giving whatever information you could which might identify the man who shot your husband. A. Yes, sir.

Q. You were shown pictures? A. Yes, sir. Q. Did you give a description of the man to the police? A. No, sir. Q. Have a mustache? A. A mask covered his face.

Q. So it came before the chin? A. Yes, sir. It appeared so you couldn't see the man's face. Q. Did he speak? A. No. Q. Can you describe the person as you saw him that night? A. No, sir.

Q. Was he tall or medium? A. Medium. Q. Stout or slender? A. Medium. Q. Did he have a coat? A. Yes. Q. Was it black? A. Yes. Q. Was it a cutaway or sack? A. Cutaway, I think. Q. What color trousers? A. I don't know. Q. Was his coat open? A. Closed, I think.

Mask Covered His Eyes. Q. Have a collar on? I can't say. Q. See his eyes? Did he have a mask on his eyes? A. Yes. Q. Did the mask cover his chin? A. Yes, it appeared to cover his chin. Q. Did you see his face? A. No. Q. Did you hear his voice? A. No. Q. Did he speak at all? A. No. Q. What was the substance of the mask? A. Some sort of black stuff. Q. Did it have eye-holes? A. Yes. Q. Did he wear a cap? A. He had a black cap. Q. Was it the one found after? A. I did not see that one.

Identifies the Cap. Q. Here is the one found. Is that it? (said Mr. Clarke, exhibiting the cap found in the Latimer house). A. Yes, that's it. Q. Did he have a mask? A. Yes, his whole face was covered. Q. Did you see any of his face? A. No. Q. Did this person take hold of you? A. He pushed me. Q. Did you show marks on your arm? A. I did, but I did not discover them until the next day. Q. Did the burglar take hold of you by the arm? A. I don't remember. Q. How do you account for the marks on your arm? A. Mr. Meldrum saved me from falling from the roof. Q. Did you have marks on your lower limbs, as marks of violence made by the burglar? A. Yes, sir. Q. Did you tell Capt. Reynolds you had marks on your limbs made by the burglar? A. I don't remember. Q. Did you tell any one you had such marks, made by the burglar? A. I don't remember. Mr. Byron Latimer said they had been caused by my falling from the porch. Q. The closet in your room, did it close? A. It did not. Q. If pushed, would it close? A. Only if force were used. Q. What was in the closet? A. My clothes. Q. Was your trunk in it? A. Yes. Q. That left hardly room for a person to stand? A. There was room. Q. Was your handbox back of the trunk? A. No, it was on the floor.

Awakened by the Light. Q. What first awoke you? A. The movement of the light. Q. When was this man when you awoke? A. At the closet door. Q. When you got up you knew there was somebody in the closet? A. Yes, sir. Q. I understand you closed the door? A. Yes, sir. Q. You believed it a burglar? A. I THOUGHT IT WAS SOMEBODY. Q. Were you not timid? A. Not at that time. Q. The lantern was lit? A. Yes, sir.

Touched His Revolver. Q. Were you close to him at any time? A. Yes. I touched his revolver. Q. Before he left the closet? A. No, after he left the closet. I went to

GIANTS PLAY ORANGE NINE

Jersey men Score on New Yorkers in First Inning—Deegan Is a Puzzle Until Third, When Giants Score.

New York. Orange A. C. Cusick, m. McGraw, c. Broderick, p. Dietrich, i. Brodie, o. Lauder, 2b. Smith, 2b. Brown, rf. Rowersman, c. Mathewson, p. Umpire—Mr. Deegan.

Seventh Inning—Bresnahan fanned. Cronin safe on Batlman's error. Jones singled. McGraw forced Jones at second. McGraw flied out. No runs.

Brooklyn Wins. PHILADELPHIA 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0 BROOKLYN 1 0 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-3

Fourth Race—Bragg 1. Brulere 2. Vulcan 3.

WIDOW SWEARS MIDNIGHT INTRUDER'S FACE WAS ENTIRELY MASKED—NEIGHBORS TELL OF HEARING CRIES OF "WALTER!"—TUTHILL EXPLAINS ABOUT HIS VISIT.

The Latimer inquest to-day was abruptly adjourned. Six subpoenas were hastily issued. Statements are made that the police are prepared to make an arrest at once.

The six new witnesses to appear to-morrow will give testimony of the utmost importance.

Distriet-Attorney Clarke believes three of them will be able to solve the murder mystery, the motives for which, he asserts, are far reaching.

Mrs. Latimer for the first time described her husband's murderer. She said he was of medium height, and that he wore a bicycle cap and black cutaway coat.

A mask covered his entire face. He did not speak. She touched his revolver, which he carried in his left hand. He shoved her roughly aside. Next day there were marks on her limbs.

William H. Tuthill, about whom Latimer, on his death bed, asked: "Is Tuthill watched?" told of his visits to the Latimer home. He said the family made no objection.

MRS. LATIMER FOR FIRST TIME TRIES TO DESCRIBE INTRUDER.

Mrs. Latimer, for the first time, to-day gave a description of her husband's murderer.

It was noon when she was called to the stand by Coroner Williams at the inquest in Borough Hall, Brooklyn. She appeared broken and ill.

During her testimony she wept and seemed on the verge of hysterics. Q. Mrs. Latimer, you were visited by the police for the purpose of giving whatever information you could which might identify the man who shot your husband. A. Yes, sir.

Q. You were shown pictures? A. Yes, sir. Q. Did you give a description of the man to the police? A. No, sir. Q. Have a mustache? A. A mask covered his face.

Q. So it came before the chin? A. Yes, sir. It appeared so you couldn't see the man's face. Q. Did he speak? A. No. Q. Can you describe the person as you saw him that night? A. No, sir.

Q. Was he tall or medium? A. Medium. Q. Stout or slender? A. Medium. Q. Did he have a coat? A. Yes. Q. Was it black? A. Yes. Q. Was it a cutaway or sack? A. Cutaway, I think. Q. What color trousers? A. I don't know. Q. Was his coat open? A. Closed, I think.

Mask Covered His Eyes. Q. Have a collar on? I can't say. Q. See his eyes? Did he have a mask on his eyes? A. Yes. Q. Did the mask cover his chin? A. Yes, it appeared to cover his chin. Q. Did you see his face? A. No. Q. Did you hear his voice? A. No. Q. Did he speak at all? A. No. Q. What was the substance of the mask? A. Some sort of black stuff. Q. Did it have eye-holes? A. Yes. Q. Did he wear a cap? A. He had a black cap. Q. Was it the one found after? A. I did not see that one.

Identifies the Cap. Q. Here is the one found. Is that it? (said Mr. Clarke, exhibiting the cap found in the Latimer house). A. Yes, that's it. Q. Did he have a mask? A. Yes, his whole face was covered. Q. Did you see any of his face? A. No. Q. Did this person take hold of you? A. He pushed me. Q. Did you show marks on your arm? A. I did, but I did not discover them until the next day. Q. Did the burglar take hold of you by the arm? A. I don't remember. Q. How do you account for the marks on your arm? A. Mr. Meldrum saved me from falling from the roof. Q. Did you have marks on your lower limbs, as marks of violence made by the burglar? A. Yes, sir. Q. Did you tell Capt. Reynolds you had marks on your limbs made by the burglar? A. I don't remember. Q. Did you tell any one you had such marks, made by the burglar? A. I don't remember. Mr. Byron Latimer said they had been caused by my falling from the porch. Q. The closet in your room, did it close? A. It did not. Q. If pushed, would it close? A. Only if force were used. Q. What was in the closet? A. My clothes. Q. Was your trunk in it? A. Yes. Q. That left hardly room for a person to stand? A. There was room. Q. Was your handbox back of the trunk? A. No, it was on the floor.

Awakened by the Light. Q. What first awoke you? A. The movement of the light. Q. When was this man when you awoke? A. At the closet door. Q. When you got up you knew there was somebody in the closet? A. Yes, sir. Q. I understand you closed the door? A. Yes, sir. Q. You believed it a burglar? A. I THOUGHT IT WAS SOMEBODY. Q. Were you not timid? A. Not at that time. Q. The lantern was lit? A. Yes, sir.

Touched His Revolver. Q. Were you close to him at any time? A. Yes. I touched his revolver. Q. Before he left the closet? A. No, after he left the closet. I went to

GIANTS PLAY ORANGE NINE

Jersey men Score on New Yorkers in First Inning—Deegan Is a Puzzle Until Third, When Giants Score.

New York. Orange A. C. Cusick, m. McGraw, c. Broderick, p. Dietrich, i. Brodie, o. Lauder, 2b. Smith, 2b. Brown, rf. Rowersman, c. Mathewson, p. Umpire—Mr. Deegan.

Seventh Inning—Bresnahan fanned. Cronin safe on Batlman's error. Jones singled. McGraw forced Jones at second. McGraw flied out. No runs.

Brooklyn Wins. PHILADELPHIA 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0 BROOKLYN 1 0 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-3

Fourth Race—Bragg 1. Brulere 2. Vulcan 3.

WIDOW SWEARS MIDNIGHT INTRUDER'S FACE WAS ENTIRELY MASKED—NEIGHBORS TELL OF HEARING CRIES OF "WALTER!"—TUTHILL EXPLAINS ABOUT HIS VISIT.

The Latimer inquest to-day was abruptly adjourned. Six subpoenas were hastily issued. Statements are made that the police are prepared to make an arrest at once.

The six new witnesses to appear to-morrow will give testimony of the utmost importance.

Distriet-Attorney Clarke believes three of them will be able to solve the murder mystery, the motives for which, he asserts, are far reaching.

Mrs. Latimer for the first time described her husband's murderer. She said he was of medium height, and that he wore a bicycle cap and black cutaway coat.

A mask covered his entire face. He did not speak. She touched his revolver, which he carried in his left hand. He shoved her roughly aside. Next day there were marks on her limbs.

William H. Tuthill, about whom Latimer, on his death bed, asked: "Is Tuthill watched?" told of his visits to the Latimer home. He said the family made no objection.

MRS. LATIMER FOR FIRST TIME TRIES TO DESCRIBE INTRUDER.

Mrs. Latimer, for the first time, to-day gave a description of her husband's murderer.

It was noon when she was called to the stand by Coroner Williams at the inquest in Borough Hall, Brooklyn. She appeared broken and ill.

During her testimony she wept and seemed on the verge of hysterics. Q. Mrs. Latimer, you were visited by the police for the purpose of giving whatever information you could which might identify the man who shot your husband. A. Yes, sir.

Q. You were shown pictures? A. Yes, sir. Q. Did you give a description of the man to the police? A. No, sir. Q. Have a mustache? A. A mask covered his face.

Q. So it came before the chin? A. Yes, sir. It appeared so you couldn't see the man's face. Q. Did he speak? A. No. Q. Can you describe the person as you saw him that night? A. No, sir.

Q. Was he tall or medium? A. Medium. Q. Stout or slender? A. Medium. Q. Did he have a coat? A. Yes. Q. Was it black? A. Yes. Q. Was it a cutaway or sack? A. Cutaway, I think. Q. What color trousers? A. I don't know. Q. Was his coat open? A. Closed, I think.

Mask Covered His Eyes. Q. Have a collar on? I can't say. Q. See his eyes? Did he have a mask on his eyes? A. Yes. Q. Did the mask cover his chin? A. Yes, it appeared to cover his chin. Q. Did you see his face? A. No. Q. Did you hear his voice? A. No. Q. Did he speak at all? A. No. Q. What was the substance of the mask? A. Some sort of black stuff. Q. Did it have eye-holes? A. Yes. Q. Did he wear a cap? A. He had a black cap. Q. Was it the one found after? A. I did not see that one.

Identifies the Cap. Q. Here is the one found. Is that it? (said Mr. Clarke, exhibiting the cap found in the Latimer house). A. Yes, that's it. Q. Did he have a mask? A. Yes, his whole face was covered. Q. Did you see any of his face? A. No. Q. Did this person take hold of you? A. He pushed me. Q. Did you show marks on your arm? A. I did, but I did not discover them until the next day. Q. Did the burglar take hold of you by the arm? A. I don't remember. Q. How do you account for the marks on your arm? A. Mr. Meldrum saved me from falling from the roof. Q. Did you have marks on your lower limbs, as marks of violence made by the burglar? A. Yes, sir. Q. Did you tell Capt. Reynolds you had marks on your limbs made by the burglar? A. I don't remember. Q. Did you tell any one you had such marks, made by the burglar? A. I don't remember. Mr. Byron Latimer said they had been caused by my falling from the porch. Q. The closet in your room, did it close? A. It did not. Q. If pushed, would it close? A. Only if force were used. Q. What was in the closet? A. My clothes. Q. Was your trunk in it? A. Yes. Q. That left hardly room for a person to stand? A. There was room. Q. Was your handbox back of the trunk? A. No, it was on the floor.

Awakened by the Light. Q. What first awoke you? A. The movement of the light. Q. When was this man when you awoke? A. At the closet door. Q. When you got up you knew there was somebody in the closet? A. Yes, sir. Q. I understand you closed the door? A. Yes, sir. Q. You believed it a burglar? A. I THOUGHT IT WAS SOMEBODY. Q. Were you not timid? A. Not at that time. Q. The lantern was lit? A. Yes, sir.

Touched His Revolver. Q. Were you close to him at any time? A. Yes. I touched his revolver. Q. Before he left the closet? A. No, after he left the closet. I went to